

Bill Protzmann (PRAHtz-man) – Helpful Info

Intro (spoken live/recorded voiceover):

Bill Protzmann has served on the boards of Guitars for Vets and the San Diego Veterans Coalition, helping connect thousands of service members and veterans to the healing power of music through the San Diego Symphony.

He's delivered impactful keynotes for organizations like Consumer Action, 2-1-1 San Diego, and The American Music Therapy Association, while his writing has been featured on Your Tango, The Good Men Project, Psychology Today, and Musimorphic.com.

In 2014, Bill received the National Council for Behavioral Health's Inspiring Hope Award of Excellence for pioneering music as a tool for self-care. His book, More Than Human, became an Amazon best-seller in both business and spirituality.

As the world's leading expert on music's power for mental, emotional, physical, and spiritual health, he's here to inspire and demonstrate the original power of music. Please welcome Bill Protzmann!

Printed Program Bio (112 words)

Bill Protzmann is on a mission to raise awareness of music's transformative power for self-care. With over 30 years of experience, he has taught everyone from corporate leaders to those experiencing homelessness how music can enhance mental, emotional, physical, and spiritual well-being.

In 2011, Bill founded Music Care Inc., a purpose-driven company dedicated to teaching practical ways to use music for self-care. His work earned him the National Council for Behavioral Health's Award of Excellence in 2014—the industry's equivalent of an Oscar. In 2023, Music Care Inc. introduced Musimorphic™, a bold new brand focused on enhancing wellness, deepening relationships, and bringing back the joy, play, and healing power of music.

There's a special kind of person who craves authenticity—a return to what's real, what truly matters, away from the noise. They often feel pulled toward a higher purpose, but the weight of the world can leave them frustrated, teetering on the edge of giving up. Yet, in the flashes of power and energy they experience, there's potential. What if you could harness that energy—transform fear, anger, or sadness into fuel? What could you accomplish if your emotions became not just intelligence, but momentum?

Bill Protzmann explores those very questions. With a dual career in information technology and as a performing musician, Bill is uniquely qualified to help us tap into music's power for mental, emotional, physical, and spiritual transformation.

He's also a best-selling author. His book, More Than Human – The Value of Cultivating the Human Spirit in Your Organization, draws from his work with the San Diego Veterans Coalition on moral injury and hit the Amazon international best-seller list in both business and spirituality categories. He is publisher of the fine art book In Our Eyes In Our Words – Portraits from the Edge of Society, which pairs stories of homelessness with artist Jeffrey C Horn's stunning portraits, and which won an Independent Publisher of the Year Award in 2019.

Bill's music, like his writing, transcends boundaries. His rendition of Amazing Grace topped the charts on MP3.com in the '90s and became part of the Library of Congress archive. His albums—improvised, soul-deep solo piano, collaborative works with Tibetan bowls and flutes, and explorations of purposeful vibration—invite listeners into a world of healing soundscapes. His latest release, Natural Chakra Ambiance at 423Hz, is a continuation of this journey, now celebrated on his YouTube series, Performed for You.

Driven by a lifelong curiosity about sound's effect on the human spirit, Bill launched Musimorphic™ to unlock music's power as a wellness tool. Through his coaching, courses, and the fully-mentored, gamified Musimorphic™ Quest, he teaches how to access music for emotional and physical transformation, explore consciousness itself, and find lasting joy.

Beyond his work with Musimorphic™, Bill has made an impact through collaborations with the San Diego Symphony, providing over 5,000 honor tickets to military veterans, active duty service members, National Guard, and Reserves, and their families. He's led life-changing meetups on the healing power of music, including a group focused on suicide prevention. His efforts earned him the National Council for Mental Wellness Award of Excellence—the behavioral health world's Oscar.

Whether he's leading a sing-along at San Diego's Starlight Bowl or teaching "For The Love Of Music" at The Golden Door, Bill is living proof that music heals, uplifts, and transforms. Today, he's here to share how it can change your life. Please welcome Bill Protzmann.
